

Adjectives - Demonstrative

this, that, these, those

English

Page 4

A special kind of adjective used before a noun or before another adjective. It tells which one the speaker is talking about. The words this (singular) and these (plural) refer to nouns close to the speaker. The words that (singular) and those (plural) are nouns farther away.

Write the demonstrative adjective in each sentence.

Demonstrative Adjective

1. _____ dress belongs in the closet. _____
2. In the old days _____ would have been a foul. _____
3. _____ was the best cake I've ever eaten! _____
4. _____ is a great pizza! _____
5. Do you like _____ pretty dog? _____
6. Were _____ shoes on the floor? _____
7. _____ were the largest planes at the airport. _____
8. Did _____ cat eat the hotdog? _____