

Appositive

A word or phrase that follows a noun/subject and gives more information about the noun/subject. Appositives are generally set aside by commas.

Hint: Without the appositive the sentence will still be proper!

Punctuate and write the appositive in each sentence.

Appositive

1. The car, with the red stripe, was at the racetrack. _____
2. She jumped high, during recess, over the long rope. _____
3. Ted Williams_ a Redsox great_ hit 521 homeruns. _____
4. Brett Favre formally of Green Bay lives in New York. _____
5. George Forman from Texas has a TV show. _____
6. Steve Garvey a Dodger great played in 1107 games. _____
7. Michael Jordan a Bulls great won six titles. _____