

Good: Use the word good to describe (adjective) a noun.

Well: Use the word well as an adjective to describe or refer to health.
Also used as an adverb to tell how something is done.

Write the correct word (good/well) in each sentence.

1. That was a _____ hamburger! (good or well)
2. It was a _____ idea to buy a plasma TV. (good or well)
3. We had a _____ time at the game. (good or well)
4. I like my steak _____ done. (good or well)
5. You look _____ enough to go to school. (good or well)
6. “_____ done,” said the teacher. (good or well)
7. Glenn stayed home because he did not feel _____. (good or well)
8. Do you think it was a _____ played game? (good or well)