

Follows the action verb in a sentence. The direct object is a noun or pronoun in the predicate that receives the action of the verb. Ask yourself one question: Following the verb in the sentence, what was.....

Also use the pronouns: me, you, him, her, it, us, and them as direct objects!

Write the direct object for each sentence.

Direct Object

1. Patty gave the red dress to Emily.
What was given? _____

2. Lucy saw the pony run across the road
What was seen? _____

3. She carried the books to the library.
What was carried? _____

4. We ate a big pizza for lunch.
What was eaten? _____

5. The team faced many good teams going into the playoffs.
What was faced? _____

6. Juccette found $20 at the mall.
What was found? _____

7. My family visited the Grand Canyon for vacation.
What was visited? _____