

When two or more simple predicates are combined in a sentence using a conjunction (and/or) with the same subject. Combine the two simple predicates in the sentence.

Write the compound predicate for each sentence.

Compound Predicate

1. Patty lost then found a $20 bill. _____
2. She jumped and skipped over the long rope. _____
3. Is she walking or driving to the birthday party? _____
4. Do you want to rest or run to the park? _____
5. Horses stand and sleep at the same time. _____
6. The mamma bear watches and protects her cubs. _____
7. The eagle flies and looks for food. _____