

When there is a singular subject there must be a singular verb. When there is a plural subject there must be a plural verb. This means the subject and verb agree in number.

Complete each sentence and write the subject and the verb.

	Subject/s	Verb
1. Joseph helps his mother cook dinner.	_____	_____
2. Sarah and Joseph help mother cook dinner!	_____	_____
3. The snakes slither away slowly.	_____	_____
4. The snake _____ away slowly.	_____	_____
5. Those girls _____ the guitar.	_____	_____
6. That _____ plays the guitar.	_____	_____
7. Carmen shop__ all the time.	_____	_____
8. Carmen and Isabelle _____ all the time.	_____	_____