

A factor tree is a way to find all the factors of a composite number. Using the number 12 (composite number) to show a factor tree, a student will be able to factor until there are only prime numbers left at the bottom of the tree.

